Introduction

- The Island is a multi use arts venue housing artists studios, dance space, circus training space, the Island team's admin office, a gallery space and the venue in the basement which hosts club nights and workshops.
- Please note, we do not have an accessible toilet on sight and all areas are accessed via steps. We are housed in the old Bridewell police station, a grade II listed building. Access is limited.

Comments

- We have no accessible toilets on site, though all toilets are inclusive to all gender identities.

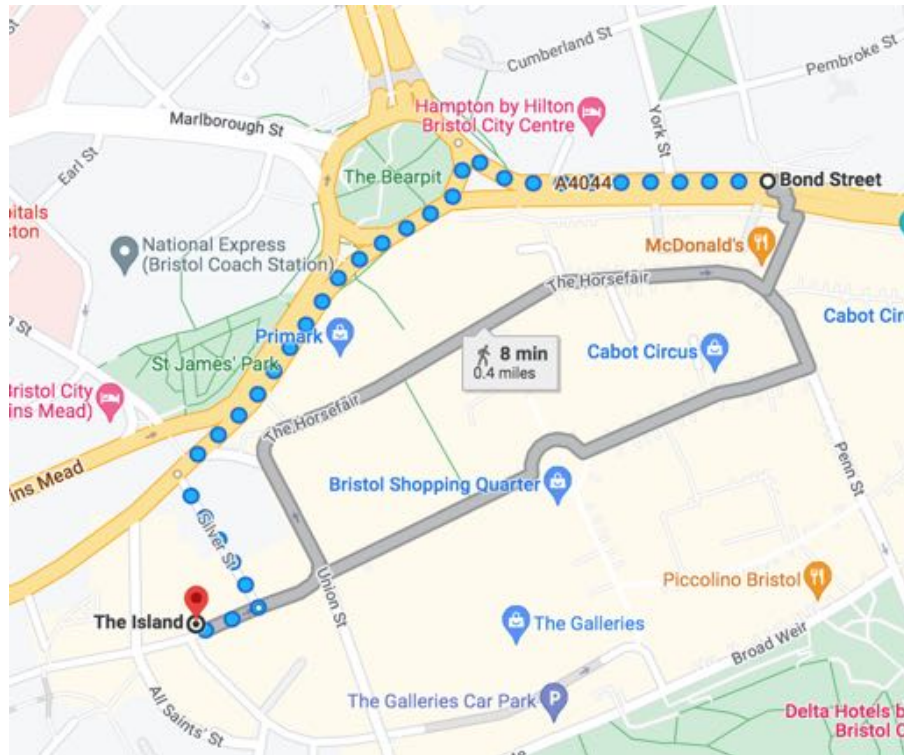

Opening times

- The Island office is usually staffed 10am - 5pm Monday to Friday, if you want to come and discuss using the space it is useful to contact us first on info@theisland.uk or give us a call on 0117 3763457 .

Location bus/rail

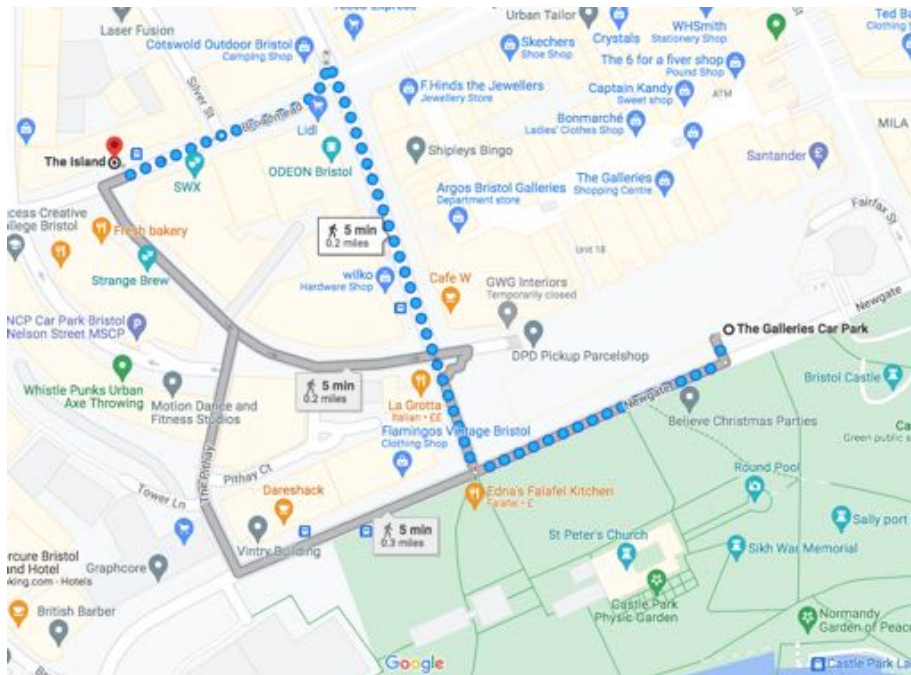

- The nearest train station is Bristol Temple Meads.
- Buses from Temple Meads, you can get the number 8 bus from just outside the station. The bus generally runs every 20-30 minutes, though at busier times there is a bus every 10 minutes. Take the bus 1 stop (around 7 minutes) to Bond Street (check with the driver that Bond street is their next stop as the bus does a loop around the city) and when you get to Bond Street you are an 8 minute walk from The Island.

- See below for the route from the Bond Street bus stop to The Island, Nelson Street entrance.

Parking

- The cheapest place to park nearby is at The Galleries, see the map below to get to The Island, Nelson Street from The Galleries car park.

- Information, parking at The Galleries
